

Join us on Saturday, January 19, 2019 for Theatre & Dance Scholarship Auditions

To be eligible to audition/interview, prospective students must complete the following before their scheduled audition date:

1. Complete an application for admission to the College of Charleston.
2. Submit an audition packet to the department containing:
 - A cover letter that includes name, address, email, and phone number. Letter should contain a statement of interest and career goals as related to your discipline.
 - A resume of your theatrical and creative work.
 - One letter of recommendation from a person familiar with your theatrical/creative work or dance training.

Materials must be received no later than January 7, 2019. Your audition/interview will be scheduled once all packets are received.

ACTING applicants should prepare two contrasting monologues that best demonstrate his/her performance capabilities. Total audition time should not exceed four (4) minutes.

DESIGN / PRODUCTION applicants should prepare a portfolio that may include examples of sketches, models, color renderings, photographs, or any other artwork. Be prepared to discuss your work.

DANCE applicants should be prepared to participate in a technique class comprised of a ballet barre and modern center. In addition, applicants should prepare a 1-2 minute solo in the genre of their choice. Music should be on cd or downloaded on a phone/ipod/mp3 player. Dancers should wear leotards, pink or black tights (convertible or footless) and ballet shoes. Bare feet are required for modern. Hair should be neatly secured away from the face and off the neck.

Video submissions are permitted from applicants who are unable to attend. Video submissions must be received by January 14, 2019.

The Department of Theatre and Dance is committed to providing leadership in the attainment of equal opportunity for all persons regardless of race, religion, sex, national origin, handicap or other legally protected classification.
